

Stanford Black Alumni Association of Southern California presents

Cardinal Prep

Cardinal Prep is a workshop that promotes high school success and college matriculation through interactive activities and discussions with local Stanford alums. This event will help secondary students develop a college mindset through meaningful connections, candid conversations and the sharing of valuable resources and strategies. A separate Parent's Forum will address how to ensure your child is academically and emotionally ready for college.

Who: 6th thru 11th Grade Students & Parents

When: Saturday, April 27, 2019; 10am - 12pm

Where: The Gailen & Cathy Reeves Family Life Center

4126 S. Arlington Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90008

Register: <http://bit.ly/cardinalprep2019>

For more information, please email niscandari@gmail.com